MISSION

Spoonfuls is a nonprofit food recovery organization. We keep good food from going to waste. Through food recovery and distribution, education, and advocacy, we work to address the health, environmental, and economic impact that wasted food has on the planet.

FOOD RECOVERY

We've recovered and distributed over 40 million pounds of food - enough for 32 million meals - across Massachusetts to date.

Fresh, healthy food

We source unsold, fresh food (like fruits and veggies, dairy, lean protein, and baked goods) from food retailers like grocery stores, wholesalers, farms, and more.

Professional delivery team

Our ServSafe-certified Food Recovery team uses refrigerated vehicles to transport food.

Distribution to community organizations

We deliver, same day, to food programs (like pantries, meal programs, and more) reaching neighbors facing food insecurity.

WHY WE DO IT

In the U.S., around a third of all food goes unsold or uneaten. In Massachusetts alone, over 1 million tons of food hit the waste stream annually, while 1 in 3 households faces food insecurity.

OUR PARTNERS

We work with 350+ partners across Massachusetts, from Boston to Springfield and Lowell to New Bedford, to get food to those who need it now.
